

2022/ 2023	AUTUMN		SPRING		SUMMER
	HT1	HT2	HT3	HT4	HT5	HT6
Y 7	Area of study Introduction to World Religions & Islamic beliefs Key concepts/ Knowledge Comparative Religions Assessment method Group work	Area of study Muslim Worship & Practise Key concepts/ Knowledge Tawhid, 5 pillars Assessment method Exam/quiz	Area of study Christianity Key concepts/ Knowledge Beliefs, Worship and Practices Assessment method Presentations/ exam	Area of study Judaism Key concepts/ Knowledge Beliefs, Worship and Practices Assessment method Presentations/ exam	Area of study Moral values & Spirituality / Humanism Key concepts/ Knowledge Comparative study – similarities and differences on morality Assessment method Group work /presentations	Area of study Life of Prophet Muhammad SAW Key concepts/ Knowledge History of Islam – Religious Leaders and impact Assessment method Group work /Exam/quiz
Y 8	Area of study History of the 4 Khalifs Key concepts/ Knowledge History of Islam – Religious Leaders and impact Assessment method Exam / Individual Presentation		Area of study Sikhism Key concepts/ Knowledge Beliefs, Worship and Practices Assessment method Newsletter	Area of study Hinduism & Buddhism Key concepts/ Knowledge Beliefs, Worship and Practices Assessment method Newsletter	Area of study Creation and the Environment Key concepts/ Knowledge Stewardship & responsibility Assessment method Exam	Area of study Human Rights- women in Islam Key concepts/ Knowledge Research skills – comparative study of religions Assessment method Group presentations & individual written assessment
Y 9	Area of study Rites of Passage Key concepts/ Knowledge Birth, marriage & death Assessment method Groupwork/ Exam/ presentation	Area of study Religious Scriptures Key concepts/ Knowledge Sacred Writings – Quran/hadith Assessment method Exam	Area of study Living the Muslim Life Key concepts/ Knowledge Role of religion in society - impact Assessment method Presentation/ Exam	Area of study Healthy Living Key concepts/ Knowledge Personal hygiene, alcohol, drugs Assessment method Exams	Area of study Religion, peace & conflict Key concepts/ Knowledge Just war, Jihad, justice, terrorism Assessment method Exams	Area of study Existence of God Key concepts/ Knowledge Atheism, Evil & suffering, Christianity: Trinity, incarnation Assessment method Exams

NOTES	SKILLS FOR LIFE/ FUTURE LEARNING AND EMPLOYMENT
	Students should develop: • The analytical skills to explore their own faith and develop an understanding of how their religious beliefs are entwined with their sense of identity • the ability to recognise the diversity of beliefs within British society and in the world in order to facilitate their active and positive participation in society • the investigative skills to recognise the common threads and similarities in religious teachings (in particular the Abrahamic faiths) as well as the differences between religions • the ability to analyse the impact these beliefs have had on individuals and society and to investigate the beliefs, worship and practice of different religious including their own in order to develop and reinforce respect for differences and challenge prejudice • the ability to consider challenging ethical questions and their responsibilities to themselves, their communities and society in general • the oracy skills to effectively articulate well supported arguments and opposing points of view and support points with links to religious texts and sources of wisdom • the reading skills to identify key ideas and explanation from reading a range of texts linked to religious teachings

2022/ 2023	AUTUMN		SPRING		SUMMER
	HT1	HT2	HT3	HT4	HT5	HT6
Y10	Area of study Arguments for the existence of Allah Key concepts/ Knowledge Causation, design, evil & suffering Assessment method End of section internal Exam	Area of study GCSE: Philosophy & ethics Religious teachings on relationships & the family Key concepts/ Knowledge Marriage, cohabitation, family Assessment method End of section internal Exam	Area of study Relationships & the family Key concepts/ Knowledge Divorce, contraception, equality Assessment method End of section internal Exam	Area of study Christian Beliefs and Teachings Key concepts/ Knowledge Trinity, Incarnation, salvation Assessment method End of section internal Exam	Area of study GCSE: Christianity Christian Beliefs and Practices Key concepts/ Knowledge Worship, sacraments, Church Assessment method End of section internal Exam	Area of study Christian Practices Key concepts/ Knowledge Worship and Practices Assessment method End of section internal Exam
Y11	Area of study Beliefs and Teachings Key concepts/ Knowledge Beliefs and Worship; Islam Assessment method Exam	Area of study Section 2: Practices Key concepts/ Knowledge Worship and Practice; Islam Assessment method Mock Exams	Area of study Sources of wisdom & authority Key concepts/ Knowledge Sacred writings and teachings; Islam Assessment method Exam	Area of study Forms of expression & ways of life Key concepts/ Knowledge Role in society & for the individual; Islam Assessment method Exam	Area of study Revision and preparation for final exams Assessment method GCSE exam papers Paper 1 Islam: 1hr 45 minutes (50%) Paper 2 Christianity: 50 minutes (25%) Paper 3 Philosophy & ethics (Islam) 50 minutes (25%)

NOTES	SKILLS FOR LIFE/ FUTURE LEARNING AND EMPLOYMENT
	Students should develop: • The analytical skills to explore their own faith and develop an understanding of how their religious beliefs are entwined with their sense of identity • the ability to recognise the diversity of beliefs within British society and in the world in order to facilitate their active and positive participation in society • the investigative skills to recognise the common threads and similarities in religious teachings (in particular the Abrahamic faiths) as well as the differences between religions • the ability to analyse the impact these beliefs have had on individuals and society and to investigate the beliefs, worship and practice of different religious including their own in order to develop and reinforce respect for differences and challenge prejudice • the ability to consider challenging ethical questions and their responsibilities to themselves, their communities and society in general • the oracy skills to effectively articulate well supported arguments and opposing points of view and support points with links to religious texts and sources of wisdom • the reading skills to identify key ideas and explanation from reading a range of texts linked to religious teachings					